

Complaints-Handling at Triland Metals

OUR POLICY

Triland Metals Limited (“Triland”, “we”, “us”) are committed to providing high-quality services to our customers and potential customers. However, there may be instances where something goes wrong or you are not satisfied with the level of service you received from us.

All complaints are taken very seriously and any feedback is appreciated as it provides us with an opportunity to improve our standards. In line with our commitment to you, as well as our legal and regulatory obligations, we shall endeavour to:

- ♦ Acknowledge and respond to your complaint without undue delay
- ♦ Investigate and handle your complaint fairly and consistently
- ♦ Communicate with you openly and clearly
- ♦ Keep you informed about further handling of your complaint
- ♦ Carry out redress or remedial action where appropriate
- ♦ Provide thorough and transparent information as to our reasons if such redress or action will not be offered and, where required, provide details of alternative dispute resolution options that may be available
- ♦ Where applicable, refer you to bodies or alternative dispute resolution entities who may review your complaint

You may also have the right to make a complaint at any time to a regulatory body and/or take civil action. We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach such regulatory body or take such action, so please contact us in the first instance.
